

SEA-DOO TODAY

THE NEW SEA-DOO 3D WATERCRAFT WEBSITE RIDE3D.COM GOES LIVE

Bombardier Recreational Products has launched ride3d.com, a web-site exclusively dedicated to the all new Sea-Doo® 3D™ watercraft. The new ride3d.com web-site utilizes an edgy, high-energy look to showcase all of the aspects that make the Sea-Doo 3D unlike anything that has ever touched the water. This new site also includes information on the Sea-Doo 3D Virtual Trial Tour, coolest new Sea-Doo riding gear, and dealer locator.

Flash programming is utilized to show how each of the various 3D modes – VERT, MOTO, and KART – morph into one another providing three very unique and different on-water experiences. Enter the Virtual Explorer and click on the various cells to discover detailed information on the technical features of the Sea-Doo 3D. Detailed technical specifications can also be seen with a click on the “specs” page as well of a full list of benefits that are offered on the Sea-Doo 3D watercraft.

Visit ride3d.com to learn more about the watercraft that is poised to reinvent the watercraft industry, the Sea-Doo 3D.

Three Dimensions. Three Experiences. One Watercraft.
